From my point of view

We've all seen it – the strategic action items that never seem to move forward because today's emergencies use up all of your time, or maybe you've formed committees to tackle issues, but they generate more ideas than results.

Big visions and big plans are great, but to get stuff done works best you have to harness your distinctive resources and networks to commit to tackling high impact, high “doable” projects right now. Small success, one after the other, will get you exactly where you want to be. So, what are you waiting for? Let's execute.
